12th - Lecture: My Photography - Fine Art or Creative Expression by Jim Hartje ARPS, DPAGB, APAGB EFIAP

Jim has always been fascinated by computers which have now become a creative aid to his photography. He says: 'The transition from film to digital capture now kind of gives you a second chance to get it right if you did not quite achieve that at the time of taking. I firmly believe that there is not a camera in existence that will take the perfect picture as you actually see it at the time, so there is always the need for some, if only minor, tweaking.'
